Having grown every year, CTC is a family business now in its 2nd generation of ownership; passionate about confectionery and retailing in Australia.

We use our 40 years of experience and insight in confectionery, distribution and marketing to connect great brands with the Australian public.

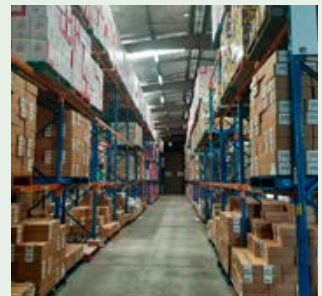

With over 30 employees, 100 distributors, 20,000 retailers selling our exclusive brands; our capabilities are second to none.

OUR FUTURE

Brand management and distribution of exclusive confectionery brands is our future.

A comprehensive national distribution network, focus on retail merchandise solutions, and category development set us apart from our competitors.

We seek to work exclusively with brands who want to develop the confectionery category in our retail partners and offer unique merchandising to complement their brand story.
